

Millennium Challenge Corporation

Reducing Poverty Through Growth

Millennium Challenge Corporation Chairman Colin Powell to Open Public Outreach Meeting

Secretary of State and MCC Chairman Colin Powell will make opening remarks at the fifth public outreach meeting of the Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) on Wednesday, November 10. Following the Chairman's remarks, MCC Chief Executive Officer Paul Applegarth will conduct the meeting.

The November 10 meeting will be a discussion about the announcement on Monday, November 8 by the MCC Board of Directors the countries eligible for Millennium Challenge Account Assistance for Fiscal Year 2005, and will be open to questions from the audience

DATE: Wednesday, November 10 2004,
TIME: 1:00 - 2:00 PM.
ADDRESS: US Department of State.
Dean Acheson Auditorium
(Enter through 23rd Street Entrance)
Washington, DC

REQUIRED SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Due to security requirements at the meeting location, all individuals wishing to attend are encouraged to arrive at least 20 minutes before the meeting begins and must comply with all relevant security requirements of the United States Department of State.

Those wishing to attend should e-mail Cassandra Jastrow at events@mcc.gov with the following information by Tuesday, November 9, 10:00 AM.

Name,

Telephone Number,

Affiliation/Company Name,

Social Security Number, and

Date of Birth.

Seating will be available on a first come, first served basis. The meeting will also be web cast at the Millennium Challenge Corporation's website: www.mcc.gov

Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC), a new government corporation designed to work with some of the poorest countries in the world, is based on the principle that aid is most effective when it reinforces sound political, economic, and social policies that promote poverty reduction through economic growth.